I am directed to inform Your Honours as follows:-

- a) No Magistrates is expected to remove any official item such as refrigerators, air conditioners, chairs and tables from your previous postings to your new courts.
- b) Your Honours are required to take only your personal effects along with you to your new courts.
- c) Your Honours are requested to take along with you to your new Courts all part-heard matters (that is, part-heard trial and judgments yet to be delivered).
- d) All fresh files and pending bail applications should remain at the Court where they commenced.
- e) Members of staff (Registrar, Clerks, Office Attendants etc.) attached to each Court shall not go with their Magistrates to their new Courts.

I have further directive to inform Your Honours that notwithstanding sharing of sitting days, bail applications and other urgent matters should be attended to promptly.

The foregoing is for Your Honours' attention and due compliance, please.
